

INTRODUCTION

The purpose of this Application Template is to assist CRF Fellowship candidates to develop their application.

Important to Note:

1. Applications are to be submitted online via Submittable
2. This is intended to be a working document only. Answers to the questions need to be entered directly in the e-form in Submittable.
3. The character/word limits indicated in the questions below apply to the e-Form. You will not be able to exceed the limit.
4. Answer ALL questions.
5. Applications close 27 December 2026.

APPLICATION QUESTIONS

APPLICANT

1. Personal Details.

- Title
- First Name
- Last Name
- Academic Postnominals
- Business phone
- Mobile number
- Email

2. Select your current employment status.

- Current Organisation
- Current role/Position Title
- Not currently employed

2.1. Provide End Date of current contract.

- Use dd/mm/yyyy format
- Not applicable

3. Provide the date you were awarded your PhD.

Use dd/mm/yyyy format. (The year in which the qualification was officially conferred; this might not be the year of completion.)

3.1. Have you had any career disruptions?

Yes or No

If Yes:

3.1.1. Select the nature of career disruptions.

If applicable, select one or more from:

- Carer's Responsibilities
- Maternity or Parental Leave
- Non-research Employment
- Unemployment
- Illness
- International Relocation
- Other

3.1.2. Provide details of career disruptions.

Note: Maximum 500 words allowed

4. Are you currently residing in South Australia?

Yes or No

If no, provide details of your plans to relocate to SA in the timeframe required.

Note: Maximum 500 words allowed

5. Are you eligible to work in South Australia?

Yes or No

If no, provide details on how you intend to be eligible in the timeframe required.

Note: Maximum 500 words allowed

6. What is your expected commencement date?

Start date to be negotiated between 1 April-30 Jun 2021

Use dd/mm/yyyy format.

7. Please provide your Google Scholar H Index.

Note: To calculate your H index, create a profile in Google Scholar. Profiles can be made private or public.

7.1. Provide your total number of peer reviewed publications.7.2. Provide the number of external funded grants where you are named as a Chief Investigator.

Note: A Chief Investigator is a named investigator on a grant.

8. Provide a summary of your past areas of research and research outputs.

Note: Maximum 500 words allowed

9. Provide a summary of your experience in supervising, mentoring, and coaching trainee researchers or research teams?

Note: Maximum 500 words allowed

10. Provide summary of your experience in building collaborations across research organisations, industry and/or other agencies?

Note: Maximum 500 words allowed

11. Attach Curriculum Vitae.

Provide a curriculum vitae of no more than 6 pages that addresses the requirements indicated below.

- a. Research achievements other than research outputs (examples may include prizes, honours, awards, patents, IP licences, invited keynote and speaker addresses, and other professional activities).*
- b. Any high-quality innovation and commercialisation outcomes (examples may include significant achievements and outcomes that have contributed to a tangible impact for end users).*
- c. External funding track record (include externally funded research grants and non-grant funding, and provide details of sponsor, funding scheme, project title, years funded, total funding amount, lead investigator, your role in the project e.g. Chief Investigator, Partner Investigator, Associate Investigator).*
- d. HDR completions.*
- e. Ten career-best research outputs.*
- f. Significant research outputs (2020– present). List outputs.*
 - Scholarly books
 - Scholarly book chapters
 - Refereed journal articles
 - Refereed conference papers
 - Other research outputs

Note: attach as pdf, doc or docx.

PROJECT DESCRIPTION

12. Project description.

Provide a summary of the proposed research.

Note: Maximum 300 words allowed.

12.1. Attach a detailed Project Description to include.

- Research Overview
- Relevance to the Fellowship theme of 'Prevention and/or Management of Childhood Disability and Disease'
- Research background
- Research plan.

Note: Maximum 2000 words (4 pages) attach as pdf, doc or docx

13. Describe a summary of the anticipated outcomes of the project (including new or advanced knowledge, potential applied and translational research outcomes, etc).

Note: Maximum 500 words allowed.

13.1. Describe why the proposed research is innovative and will contribute to an important gap in knowledge or practice related to the CRF theme.

Note: Maximum 500 words allowed.

13.2. Outline plans for future development of the project.

Note: Maximum 500 words allowed.

13.3. Provide a description of how the project will benefit South Australia and the global community.

Note: Maximum 500 words allowed.

14. Which research institution will host and support your project?

15. Describe the confirmed support you will receive in addition to the CRF contribution from the host institution in which you intend to undertake your project (including funding, hosting and other research support)?

- Source.
- Cash $.
- In-kind $.
- Description of support.

Note: Maximum 500 words allowed.

15.1. Provide a summary of other funding support you will pursue in addition to that provided by CRF and the host institution

Note: Maximum 500 words allowed.

ATTACHMENTS

16. Supporting Documents.

Include the following supplementary documents

1. Covering letter outlining why you should be selected for a CRF Fellowship.
2. Letter(s) of support for confirmed co-investment
3. Evidence of the award of the PhD.

Note: attach as pdf, doc or docx.